Disabled community members and their families and friends are invited to attend an afternoon of hands-on art, creativity, and socialization.

Community artists will give art demonstrations and lend their expertise to participants as they complete their own art projects.

All supplies will be provided.
NO ART EXPERIENCE NECESSARY!

Participants at this event will have the opportunity to have their art featured on a new series of JFCS greeting cards. Sales from the greeting cards will help fund resources, information, and socialization for children and adults with disabilities. through our TASK and Tikvah programs.
