

Survivors soak in the sunshine

Jewish Family & Child Service hosted its annual picnic for Holocaust survivors Thursday, June 6 at Cook Park in Tigard. Dozens of survivors, their families and JFCS volunteers enjoyed a salmon salad lunch and the Klezmer stylings of local musicians. (Rockne Roll/The Jewish Review)

Click the logo to download the latest episode of The Jewish Review Podcast